

CAVE CANEM

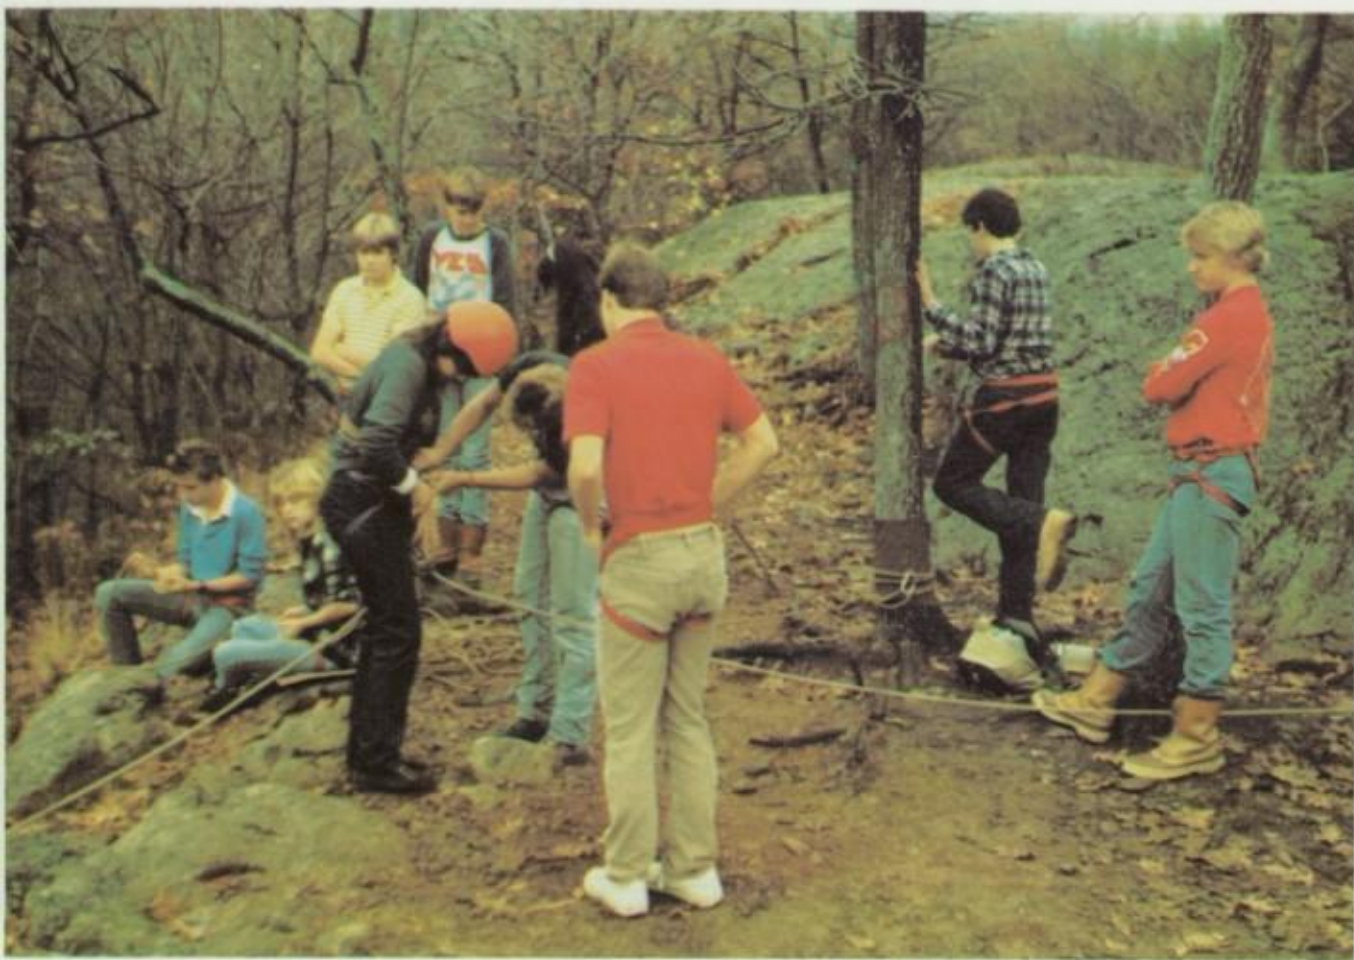

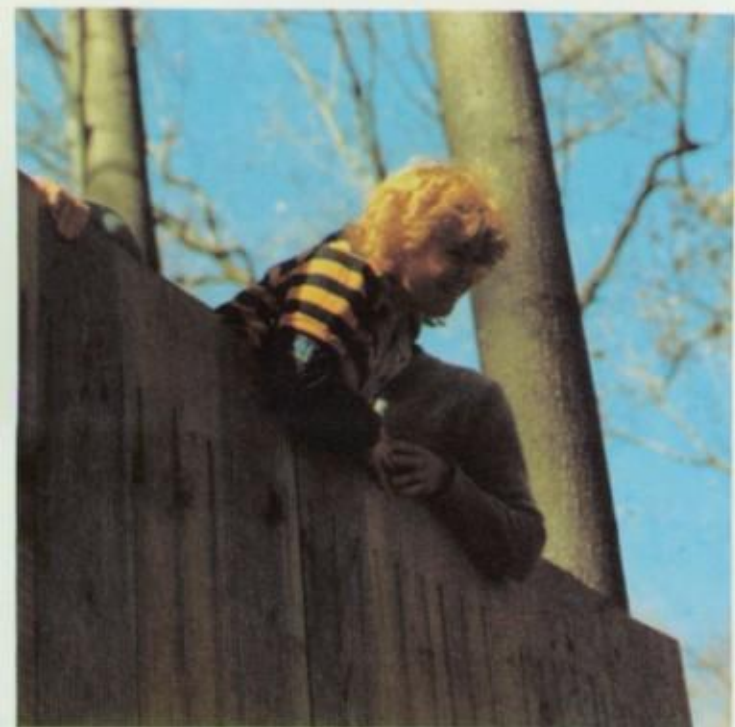

DEDICATION

Rarely does a teacher exhibit the dedication Ed Martin has, to learning and to helping others to learn. He is one of the finest teachers we have ever had and his love for his work is communicated to all who have had classes with him. He puts everything he has into his lectures, evaluation of student work, and report card comments. However, Mr. Martin's work goes way beyond the classroom. He has frequently given his free time to compose thoughtful, beautifully written student recommendations. But, he is much more than a teacher who excels in his profession. Mr. Martin is a wonderful person who cares about his students as people, not just as bodies sitting at desks in the classroom. He respects each student's ability to think and act as an individual. A student can always rely on him to listen, understand, and to help if there is a problem. Mr. Martin is, in every sense of the word, a friend. The contributions he has made to the community at Gill/St. Bernards are as varied as they are endless. We will remember you, Mr. Martin, for the rest of our lives because you have been an outstanding teacher and friend.

Thank you, Mr. Martin, for all that you have done for us.

STILL CRAZY AFTER ALL THESE YEARS

*I met my old lover
On the street last night
She seemed so glad to see me
I just smiled
And we talked about some old times
And we drank ourselves some beers
Still crazy after all these years
Still crazy after all these years*

*I'm not the kind of man
Who tends to socialize
I seem to lean on Old familiar ways
And I ain't no fool for love songs
That whisper in my ears
Still crazy after all these years
Still crazy after all these years*

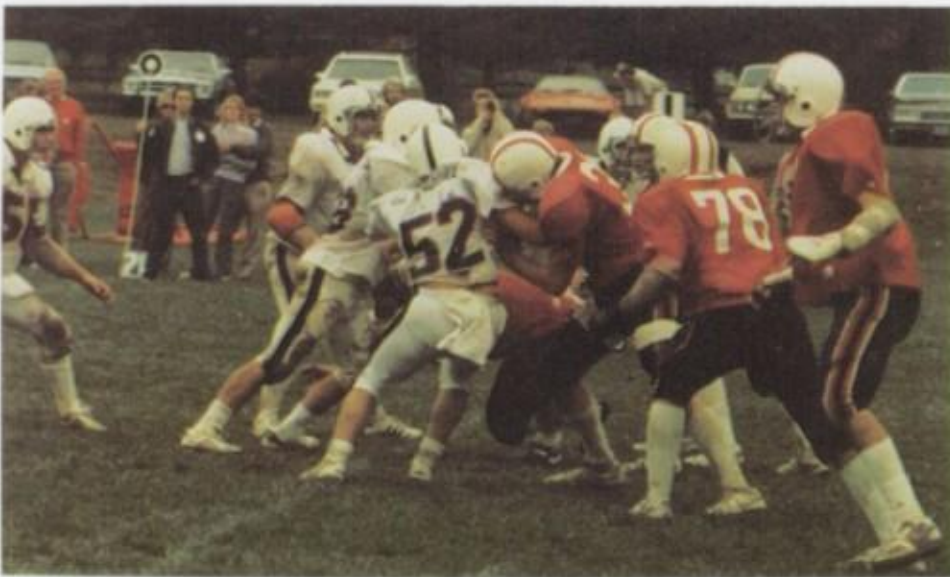

*Four in the morning
Crapped out
Yawning
Longing my life away
I'll never worry
Why should I?
It's all gonna fade*

*Now I sit by my window
And I watch the cars
I fear I'll do some damage
One fine day
But I would not be convicted
By a jury of my peers
Still crazy
Still crazy
Still crazy after all these years*

IN THE BEGINNING THERE WERE GRUNTS.

Grunts begot words which were seen to be good. Geometric progression produced sentences, paragraphs, autobiographies and the abstract concepts of HISTORY and REALITY. As more people lived and wrote autobiographies, and died and became HISTORY, and in between pondered the nature of REALITY, it became necessary to keep track of the assembled paragraphs, called BOOKS. Thus GOD created DEWEY (1851), and DEWEY invented the SYSTEM (1876).

MICHAEL SAVARD

For the love, laughter, happiness, sharing, friendship, inspiration,
and beauty I thank you
with all my heart.

Life - so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love - like the autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see where we're going
And all the secrets in the universe Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up
We may never pass this way again..
Seals & Crofts

Impressions of an acquaintance fade away, but the mark of a true friend remains forever

Mom and Dad,
It is your love and guidance that has made me everything I am today. Words cannot express my gratitude for the life you have given and shared with me.
Throughout my years I will carry parts of you which will have a greater influence on me than anything. But most of all I will have the gift of love - and that is priceless.

I Love You

Like as the waves move towards the pebbled shore
So do our minutes hasten to their end, Each changing place with that which goes before,
In sequent toil all forwards do contend.
Nativity, once in the main of light,
Crawls to maturity, where better crown'd,
Crook'd eclipses dash at his glory fight,
And time, that gave, doth now his gift confound.
Time doth transfix the flourish set on youth,
And dews the parallels in beauty's brow;
Feeds on the rarities of nature's truth, and nothing stands but for his scythe to mow.
And yet, to times in hope my
verse shall stand,
Praising thy worth, despite his cruel hand.

Shakespeare

WENDY KNUDSEN

*Forget that I remember
And dream that I forget*

*A little soul scarce fledged for earth
Takes wing with heaven again for goal
Even while we hailed as fresh from birth
A little soul*

*A man who thinks he has monopoly
Of wisdom, no rival in speech or intellect,
Will turn out hollow when you look inside him.
However wise he is, it is no disgrace
To learn, and give way gracefully.
You see how trees that bend to winter floods
Preserve themselves, save every twig unbroken,
But those that stand rigid perish root and branch*

*Let us not be uneasy, then about the different roads
We may pursue, . . .
Let us be happy in the hope that by these different paths
We shall meet in the end*

Michelle Simms—

Youth is not a time of life, it is a state of mind. It is not a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips, supple knees; it is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions; it is a freshness of the deep springs of life. Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite of adventure over the love of ease. This often exists in a woman of fifty more than a girl of twenty. Nobody grows old merely by living a number of years; people grow old only by deserting their ideals. Years may wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul.

Worry, doubt, self-distrust, fear and despair, these are the long, long years that bow the head and turn the growing spirit back to dust. Whether seventy or seventeen there is in every being's heart the love of wonder, the sweet amazement of the stars and starlight things and thoughts, the undaunted challenge of events, the unfailing child-like appetite for what is next, and the joy and the game of life.

You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

In the central place of your heart there is a sensitive station. So long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer, grandeur, courage and power from the earth, from men and from the Infinite, so long are you young.
